

First-Person Greek God/Goddess Research Project & Presentation

Name _____ God/Goddess _____

Project Details

In this research project, students will research their chosen god or goddess from Greek Mythology. They may use the handouts from the teacher, mini-books, resources from the library, and websites. Additionally, students are highly encouraged to dress up and use props to add to their presentation.

The majority of the research will be done in school. Students are required to provide detailed answers to all questions asked by the teacher. Once students have answered all questions in the packet, they will type their oral presentation in GoogleDocs. (Students have been given a username and password in school already.) All work MUST be shared with the teacher.

Presentations will be _____ The rubric attached to this packet gives detailed expectations of the presentation. Students must be prepared to present on their assigned day. Volunteers will be able to present first and remaining students will be randomly selected after.

This entire packet must be turned in on the first day of presentations, regardless of when you present. It must be fully completed, along with the GoogleDocs report. Students are responsible for printing the report or asking the teacher to print it BEFORE the first day of presentations. It will be returned to the student once graded using the rubric.
